

A Little Piece of Bauhaus
Edited by Goethe-Institut Chicago Friends of Goethe Chicago

ISBN	9783735606068
Publisher	Kerber
Binding	Paperback / softback
Territory	World excluding Germany, Austria, Switzerland, the US & Canada
Size	230 mm x 160 mm
Pages	144 Pages
Illustrations	61 color, 27 b&w
Price	£23.00

- Coinciding with the anniversaries of the Bauhaus and its American counterpart the New Bauhaus, the Goethe-Institut invited ten artists to create a site-specific work of art

2017: 80 years of the New Bauhaus in Chicago – 2019: 100 years of the Bauhaus in Germany. In connection with these two anniversaries, the Goethe-Institut in Chicago organised a series of exhibitions from 2016 to 2018. Starting from the interdisciplinary Bauhaus idea, ten artists from Chicago and Germany were invited to create ‘A Little Piece of Bauhaus / Ein Stück Bauhaus’ in a situational and site-specific way. The Goethe-Institut thus became an open platform for boundary-transcending artistic dialogues between the ‘old’ and ‘new’ Bauhaus, between past and future.

Artists: Heike Albrecht, Assaf Evron, Doug Fogelson, Anke Loh, Luftwerk, Christina Wildgrube, Rebecca Wilton, Serene Wise, Monika Wulfers

Text in English and German.