- Inspired floral design from Lut Verkinderen, with lots of tips and ideas for creating the most amazing floral works of art; a useful resource for all occasions

Florist Lut Verkinderen grew up on a farm, to the rhythm of nature and the seasons. It is hardly surprising, therefore, that this love of the outdoors and a passion for floral and interior design has culminated in a career of professional floristry. Lut Verkinderen, who is happy to share her insights and love for floral arrangements, gives workshops and demonstrations at major floral events, but has, since 2007, also run her own flower school, where she teaches different techniques (weaving, stringing, clamping, stacking, bundling), introducing new materials to her students with the aim of creating harmonious colours and beautiful structures. It is in this light that About Flowers should be used, as it offers not only inspiration but is, above all, a workbook for all seasons and occasions. Accessible creations in a contemporary style with colourful detail that are Lut Verkinderen's unique trademark. Text in English and Dutch.
