Heide Christiansen began her career as a photo editor at a renowned travel magazine. Born and raised in Canada, with family in Canada, Australia and the USA, she is an avid globetrotter. She particularly enjoys travelling to England, not only because of the language, but also because of the dreamy cottages that remind her of home. It goes without saying that London is one of her favourite cities. In her latest book, she embarks on a fascinating search for the jewels of this city and the country as a whole.
