- One of the most important sculptors of the Art Deco era, Demêtre Chiparus (1886-1947) was a Romanian sculptor who lived and worked in Paris
- This book is a stunning monograph covering the most iconic of the Art Deco sculptors
- Delves into his work both as a sculptor and a painter

This new and updated edition adds new figures as well as historic documents. Of particular interest is the discovery of the long-lost marble figure Polar Bear last seen over 75 years ago in Paris, where it was exhibited for the first and last time at the 1943 Salon des Artistes Français. Accompanying images of this important discovery are presented in this edition for the very first time. Over 26 years ago the first publication of Chiparus: Master of Art Deco brought this artist into the public eye. His name, lost in records and catalogues, was rejuvenated by Alberto Shayo's rediscovery of his works, effectively bringing artist and oeuvre back to life. The book dwells on the sources and inspiration of the Art Deco movement, with particular emphasis on sculptures created by Demêtre Chiparus. Also available by Alberto Shayo:
