This stylish rock'n'roll book was published on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of dEUS. It sums up the aura and the specific character of the successful Antwerp-based band by means of the best photographs and private pictures.

Included are the highlights of dEUS; tour photos and a view behind the scenes by, among others, Federica Agamennoni, Behnam Bornak, Stefan De Batselier, Charlie De Keersmaeker, Bert Dentant, Kris Dewitte, Kristien Dirx, Steve Gullick, Bache Jespers, Alex Salinas, Cassandre Sturbois, Senne Van der Ven, Maarten Vanden Abeele and Stephan Vanfleteren.

With a foreword by Brian Molko, Placebo frontman.

The Belgian musician Tom Barman (°1972) is the frontman of the Antwerp-based rock band dEUS. Since 1994, dEUS has released seven studio albums and in 2014, Selected Songs 1994-2014 came out to celebrate their 20th anniversary. Barman has, however, also invested a lot of time in side projects. He is, for example, a passionate film director and has produced music videos for among others dEUS, Hooverphonic, and Axelle Red. In 2003, his first feature film Anyway the Wind Blows was released. Currently, Barman is touring with his dance-oriented music group Magnus.
