- Text in English and Spanish

...Expecting the Lightning uses science, art, astronomy, and anthropology to discuss what it means to be part of the universe. It is an invitation, through art, to be part of a discussion between those who acknowledge the extension of human ignorance and the desire for answers. This book, full of images, tells the history of humankind versus the universe, travelling through time by means of a multitude of artistic artefacts which interact and offer a sensorial experience. Text in English and Spanish.

Ale de la Puento is a visual artist. Her work focuses on raising questions and discovering experiences about time and space by using natural and astronomical phenomena. Through the mixing of art and science Ale de la Puento explores creative processes that generate different images of the world. Her production mixes paint, sculpture, photography, sound and film.
