- The fifth edition of the critically acclaimed annual review of international design covers the year 1990's best, most characteristic, and most significant examples in furniture, lighting, tableware, textiles, and products from teakettles to computers

The fifth edition of the critically acclaimed annual review of international design covers the year 1990's best, most characteristic, and most significant examples in furniture, lighting, tableware, textiles, and products from teakettles to computers. Once again, brilliant works by leading designers appear alongside innovative pieces of newcomers. 1990's selection was judged by the acclaimed Spanish designer Oscar Tusquets Blanca, from whose hand have come architectural, interior, furniture, and industrial product masterpieces. An indispensable source book for professionals, this wonderfully illustrated annual is also a delight to anyone who appreciates creative genius in the form of everyday objects.
