- Josse Goffin's works are brought together for the very first time

Josse Goffin is one of the most important illustrators/graphic designers of his time. The artist excels in poster design, illustration, graphics, children's books illustrations and television. His use of colour and form, his simple designs, his freshness have granted him a place on the highest level internationally. His works are often described as warm and recognisable. In this book, his works are brought together for the very first time. The exhibition Inventory will be held in Brussels (from April to July) where most of the work of Goffin will be displayed.
