

Kobe Bryant

Tyler Blue

ISBN	9780789215109
Publisher	Abbeville Press
Binding	Hardback
Territory	World excluding USA, Canada, Puerto Rico, and Australia
Size	279 mm x 212 mm
Pages	64 Pages
Illustrations	60 color
Name of series	Abbeville Sports
Price	£12.99

- Fun yet substantive nonfiction for ages 7 and up
- Traces the life, career, and legend of Kobe Bryant in a way that will grip young readers
- Written in a fan's voice - great for reluctant readers
- The latest title in the Abbeville Sports series, and the perfect companion to the best-selling Legends of the NBA ISBN 9780789214430
- Illustrated with abundant colour photos
- More than 300,000 Abbeville Sports books in print!

The life and the legend of the Black Mamba, told in an abundantly illustrated book for young readers.

For his entire career, Kobe Bryant had an unquenchable drive not just to be great, but to be the very best—to rival Michael Jordan as the number one shooting guard of all time. This fast-paced book traces his entire journey: from his childhood in Italy to his dazzling high school career in Lower Merion, PA, to the ups and downs (and five NBA championships) of his 20 seasons with the Lakers, to his retirement (announced in his famous poem “Dear Basketball”) and his tragic death at the age of 41. Full of action-packed colour photos, this latest installment in the best-selling Abbeville Sports series will inspire young basketball fans with their own dreams of glory.

Tyler Blue is the author of Stars of the NFL, Legends of the NFL, and Stars of World Tennis in the Abbeville Sports series. A former college football player and avid sports fan, Blue has journalism degrees from the University of Dayton and Northwestern University. He lives in Silver Spring, Maryland, with his wife and four young children.

