- Each box is made with natural cardboard from certified origin
- Provides children with a sense of global awareness and appetite for travel!
- Stimulate imaginative play with these pop-up neighbourhoods and characters
- Several games in each single box!

An interactive series helping children explore the world and expand their imaginative play. Each box of fun focuses on a famous city and includes: six card board pages of punch-out monuments, characters, and modes of transport, along with pedestals on which to stand them up. Bonus! Each box set also includes a large format poster-map of the city, with a search-and-find game for hidden elements amongst streets to be recognised, as well as a game-of-the-geese style board game that references the city's most famous attractions. Ages 6+
