M is the new museum in Louvain, Belgium; a new building and a new concept. It will house early and modern art inspired by the city's diversity: Leuven the historical city of art, Leuven the innovative knowledge base.

On September 20th 2009 M will take possession of a complex designed by architect Stéphane Beel. It will be the city's largest cultural institution and an important new landmark. M will open in 2009 with a remodelled permanent collection and exhibitions of work by Rogier van der Weyden and Jan Verrocchio.
